

Tobacco Warehouses Open Monday

LOCAL WAREHOUSES WILL RESUME SALES ON NEXT MONDAY

Growers' Committee Petitions Local Warehousemen Resuming Them From Their Pledge and Asking Houses Be Reopened.

Maysville looseleaf warehouses will resume the sale of tobacco on next Monday morning and official announcement to this effect was made by the Maysville Warehouse Association this afternoon.

The local warehousemen have always said they were willing to do what the growers wanted them to do in this matter and they have pledged the growers that they would keep their warehouses closed until such a time as the growers thought they should be reopened. In view of the developments at Lexington yesterday and in view of the fact that all loose-leaf markets all around Maysville are to reopen next Monday, the members of the Growers' county committee who have been seen are of the opinion that the Maysville warehousemen should be released from the pledge and asked to reopen. They point out that it would not be fair to the warehousemen and would not be fair to the growers in this section to keep the market closed.

The following petition from the Growers' Committee was this afternoon presented to the officers of the Maysville Warehouse Association and immediately upon receipt the officers officially announced the re-opening on next Monday.

We the undersigned precinct representatives of the Burley growers of Mason county desire to thank the Maysville Warehouse Association for its spirit of loyalty and helpful cooperation in the growers' fight for a cutout and better prices. We appreciate the help rendered and stanch support given to the growers' movement by each and every Maysville warehouse.

Inasmuch as the other markets of the state have indicated their intention to reopen Monday, January 17th, which action was taken over the protest of the Maysville warehouses, we are of the opinion that our growers should have the same opportunity to market their tobacco and we request that the Maysville market open on that date.

We deeply appreciate the assurance of the Warehouse Association that it holds itself in readiness to continue this cooperation in the future.

and the absence from the county of some precinct chairmen, we have been unable to get in touch with the other seventeen members of our committee.

Sales will be taken up at the Peoples and Liberty warehouses where they were abruptly stopped and from the statement of three representatives of the "Big Four" that they did not want the low grades of the 1920 crop at any price, it would seem very wise for the growers to hold their tail ends at home for on the opening day such grades did not bring enough money to pay the warehouse charges.

COMPLIMENTS LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Chief Edward M. Hite, of Lexington, former chief of the Maysville Fire Department and for several years Chief Deputy Fire Marshal, was in Maysville today on business and gave the local fire department a close inspection. Chief Hite says the local department is in splendid condition in every respect. He paid a high compliment to the efficiency of Chief Ruliff Newell and his assistants.

counting telephone bills.

GROWERS WILL CONTINUE FIGHT FOR '21 CUT-OUT

Temporary Organization Is Perfected To Push Cutout of 1921 Crop — Local Man on Organization Committee.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 14.—Sales will be resumed Monday morning in all looseleaf tobacco warehouses in the burley region, warehousemen of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee, meeting here yesterday, decided. The sales will continue for an indefinite period, it was decided.

After admitting defeat in their present attempt to hold the 1920 crop, county committee men from practically every county in the region chose Frank McVey, Versailles, to head their temporary organization, the purpose of which will be to work for an absolute cutout of the 1921 crop and to hold, if possible, the 1920 crop.

The manufacturers will be able to use only three-fourths of the 1920 crop, according to the report of the committee of twelve made to the growers here. One-fourth of the crop, about 75,000,000 pounds, will be declined because of its being of poor grade, the growers were told.

Formation of the growers' organization was placed in the hands of a committee composed of Stanley Reed, Maysville; W. R. Hinton, Bedford; John Crockett, Sharpburg; Ben Mylor, Sanders, and A. C. Bogie, Mt.
Sterling, with members from Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee to be chosen later.

County Committee men of the latest growers' body will begin a drive immediately to enlist every grower in a cutout movement it was decided. A resolution providing that the growers be asked to pledge themselves not to grow tobacco in 1921 or permit tobacco to be grown on land under their control, as well as to hold the 1920 crop and refuse to sign anything that bound them not to dispose of the present crop, was adopted.

This action followed adoption by the convention of growers' delegates immediately before their adjournment of resolutions framed by a subcommittee of the Executive Committee.

David Prewitt, Fayette county warehouseman, was permitted to explain the position of the warehousemen in the matter, stating that warehousemen realized their interests and the interests of the growers were identical and were ready to co-operate with the farmers.

He closed by demanding to know what the growers had accomplished since their meeting last Friday and recounted what Lexington warehousemen had done toward getting all markets to close.

J. N. Kehoe, Maysville banker, warehousemen and tobacco grower, declared that the growers did not need any backing if they had backbone and urged them to continue in their work for a cutout and to stick to their original plan with all the fight in them.

He reminded them that the high prices paid for leaf in the last ten years was not due to the three-year pool, the plant-bed scripping or night-riding, but to the cutout.

Three of the members of the "Big Four" tobacco buying interests, the R.
J. Reynolds, Liggett & Myers, American and Lorillard companies, had representatives confer with the committee of twelve. It was stated, and the fourth company is expected to get in touch with the members of the committee at once.

YESTERDAY'S WHEAT MARKET.

BETTER SHADES LOWER
ON LANCASTER BREAKS.
Lancaster, Ky., Jan. 13.—The local tobacco market was said to be $5 per hundred off on better grades today, and weather conditions were unfavorable. Four adjoining counties are rushing tobacco here, and what can not be accommodated in warehouses is finding shelter in stables and garages.
The average for 200,000 pounds sold Wednesday was $14.50.

SIXTEEN CENTS POUND AVERAGE AT DANVILLE.

Danville, Ky., Jan. 13.—An average of 16 cents a pound obtained on the Danville tobacco market this morning, with bright tobacco remaining about the same, and red stronger at 2 or 3 cents higher. Several crops sold at an average of 30 or 40 cents. The farm-

EDDINS SAYS HE'S INNOCENT OF MUR- DER; IS SENTENCED

Man Convicted of Murder of Ben Schumaker When Sentenced Says He Is Innocent of Wrong Doing.

Henry L. Eddins, convicted by a jury in the Mason Circuit Court this term of the murder of Ben Schumaker, night-watchman at the Maysville Cotton Mills, was sentenced by Circuit Judge C. D. Newell this morning to spend the remainder of his days in the state penitentiary as punishment for his crime.

When Eddins was asked if he had any reason why the sentence of the court should not be pronounced against him, raised his head and declared that he was innocent of willful murder and that he was justified in shooting to death Ben Schumaker. He did not deny shooting the man, nor has he ever denied committing the act but he now and has always contended that he was forced to pull the trigger.
Eddins was informed by Judge New-

Chicago, January 13.—Postal inspectors today are investigating the mysterious disappearance of a registered mail pouch, said to have contained more than $50,000 in money, jewelry and money orders. They said it was checked in when it was placed on a Chicago & Northwestern train at Milwaukee, and checked off when it arrived in Chicago yesterday, but after that disappeared. It was learned that one money order for $1,650, known to have been in the pouch, was cashed at the Chicago postoffice yesterday before the loss was discovered.

HOW RAILROAD MEN CAN BUY ALL THE RAILROADS.

When you pay a big bill for goods by freight or when you buy a railroad ticket and find the charge greatly increased since the last time you made that little trip, do you realize what it all means to the railroad men of this country?

The fact that many of them were underpaid compared with wages in industries other than farming. Many others were well paid, generally speaking, and now they are extra well paid. We understand they are satisfied and that is a thing the public should be thankful for.

Some railroad men have been talking about getting control of the railroad business of this country. We wonder if they realize how easily they can do it. Anyway, if they had the thrift of our friend, the farmer, they could accomplish it easily.

The total outstanding par value of railroad stocks—voting stocks—is about six and one-half billion dollars. But the general market slump in railroad stocks during two years has brought the SELLING value down from a par value of $100 per share to $58.50. Thus the market value of the voting stocks of the American railroads is only three billions, eight hundred millions. To gain control, a man or body of men only need a trifle over 50 per cent of the total stock. At present market prices that half would cost about ONE BILLION, NINE HUNDRED MILLIONS.

Very well. The recent increase in wages of the railroad men of the United States, amounted to six hundred and twenty-five million dollars per year. If they saved only this increase and put it into a fund, it would amount to one billion eight hundred and seventy-five millions in THREE YEARS. The interest at 4 per cent, on these savings for three years would bring that up to close onto two billions of dollars, or enough to buy control of all railroads at the present market price of railroad stocks in three years.

But they won't do it!

THE OLD-FASHIONED RELIGION.

It was only yesterday that a local churchman was heard to say, "Come on up to my church with me today and hear our preacher preach a real old-fashioned sermon."

There was much in what that man had to say and it is our belief that if there was more of the old-fashioned preaching of the old-fashioned religion, there would be more people in church on Sunday. Some of our present day minister have made of the pulpit a lecture platform upon which to discuss every present day subject.

We believe the people are hungry for the old time religion and will flock to wherever it is preached but most people tire of dry lectures and many would much more prefer a humorist of a good movie.

However, this acreage is 6.3 per cent less than the crop of 1919 which amounted to 11,610,445 acres.

New York Letter
by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — Inspector Matthew Osechmann, of the Staten Island municipal trolley line will never make literally another public official's speech. Osechmann was arrested the other day for taking one of the trolley cars out on a little ride of his own toward Port Richmond. He explained that he had been doing it for a long while, as he like to take breakfast at a Port Richmond restaurant and the trolley car offered an easy way of getting there. He cited as his defense Mayor Hylan's speech at the opening of the car line in which the Mayor said, emphatically and clearly, "the care belong to the people." He furnished $1,000 bail in the police court and went home to meditate on the unreliability of oratory.

"In these days every young woman should have an escort. So I shall now escort you home." The words are those of a courtly stranger who stopped Miss Jennie Max on the street the other evening and took away her valuable ring. He carried a gun but he was very gentle about using it, and had the matter of business all attended to before he stated his courtesy in the matter of seeing her safely home. He wished her a cordial goodnight when they reached her door and disappeared into the darkness.

Now that American tennis has shown its quality on the other side of the earth, a New York girl has returned to prove how few terrors have strange waters for America's swimmers. Miss Ethel Hillebre, poor-

Results That Last Are What Appeal to Maysville People.

Kidney sufferers in Maysville want more than temporary relief. They want results that last—results like Mr. Lynch tells about. His was a thorough test. Four years is a long time. Don's Kidney Pills have stood the test and stood it well. Why experiment with an untried medicine? People here in Maysville have shown the way.

Read the story of W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St. He says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Don's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me."

TROUBLE NEVER RETURNED
Nearly five years later, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Don's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

less mermaid of the New York Women's Swimming Association, it due to arrive shortly in the Antipole for an international swimming test. Miss Hillebre defeated Miss Fanele Durack, Australian woman champion, when they measured strokes in this country two years ago and New York is confident she will be equally successful in Australian waters.

It is sometimes difficult to give a truly personal touch to all of one's circular letters in spite of the greatest care. A letter from a well known woman's mail order shop arrived the other day at a Columbia University fraternity house. It said: "Sigma Alpha Epsilon. My dear Miss Epsilon."

The largest diamond ever sent to this country, and nobody wanted it! It's a sad story for a diamond that had so much to boast of both as to size and history. It arrived in New York two months ago, weighing 183.15 carats, and coming straight from the Sunday fex of Muaf-Abd El Hafid, the deposed Sultan of Morocco. It was entrusted by him to Frederick Wittram, manager of an American bank in Madrid, Spain, for sale in this country. Because the insurance rates on the great stone were prohibitive, Mr. Wittram dropped it into his pocket and brought it over. For the two months since his arrival, the diamond has been languishing in the office of the Customs Appraiser. According to American standards it was too big to be beautiful and too expensive to be desirable. So it has started on its way to Cuba, once more personally conducted by Mr. Wittram, where it is hoped that some jewel-loving cenorita will appreciate it.

With a four years' war record and the scars of a wound or two, Anna K. Woodman, not yet twenty years old, has come to New York from London for a six month's "rest." She carries the title of Lieutenant an dthe record of being the youngest woman officer in the English army, having enlisted in the Woman's Auxiliary Corps when she was fourteen with the aid of her older sister's clothes and her own declaration that she was 18. Miss Woodman has told the newspaper reporters that the gossip is very general in London that the Prince of Wales is coming to America next summer to marry a Washington girl.

It looks like a nice, merry little war between the state of New York and its big city. Every once in a while for many years there has been guerilla warfare carried on between them, when the legislature, due to "upstate" influences trends on the city's toes too heavily. But the present status of affairs seems particularly acute. Some of the legislators saw fit to attack the government of New York City. One or two went so far as to ask for investigation of its affairs by the state. And worst of all, there were Senator Douglas Robinson and Assemblyman Joseph Steinberg, right from within the city limits, hand in hand on the matter with the exultant upstaters. Whereupon District Attorney Swan gritted his teeth and summoned the two of them to appear at the Criminal Courts building and present evidence to support their charges. "I'll arrest the whole damned state, yet, if they say anything more about this city," he declared, in effect.

DRUNKENNESS GREATLY REDUCED UNDER PROHIBITION

Arrests Per Drunkenness in Lexington, Ky., Since Prohibition

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 13. — Arrests for drunkenness in Lexington, Ky., since the enactment of prohibition in that city have decreased from 99 to 90 per cent, during the six months following national prohibition as compared with the six months preceding, according to statistics gathered by Rev. N. A. Palmer, Kentucky editor of The American Issue, and just made public here. Four other cities showed a similar experience for the entire year following inauguration of national prohibition as compared with the previous twelve months.

Two of the four cities which reported for the entire year and five which reported for six months had local prohibition previous to July 1, 1919, and the effect there was cited by Rev. Palmer as evidence that bling tigers and bootleggers were being reduced in number by prohibition.

In Louisville during the year before prohibition there were 6,899 arrests for drunkenness and 2,622 commitments to the workhouse. During the next year arrests for drunkenness totaled 1,661 and commitments 376.

Owensboro records showed a total of 946 arrests for drunkenness during the first year and sixty-six in the second.

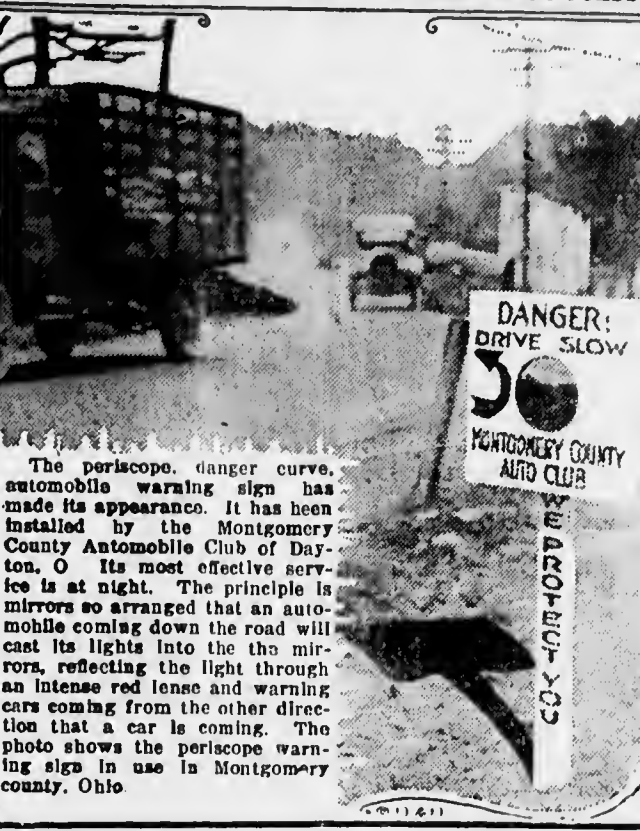

In Cynthiana, which has been dry for years, arrests for drunkenness during the twelve months preceding prohibition were forty, while in the next year only seven were imprisoned on that charge. Murray, also dry for years, reported eighty-five arrests for drunkenness in the first period and fourteen in the second.

Six month reports were made by Lexington, Frankfort and Ashland, which were wet prior to national prohibition, and Elizabethtown, Paris, Winchester, Maysville and Mt. Sterling, which were dry under the local option law. Lexington had 454 arrests during the first six months for drunkenness and 74 during the second; Frankfort had 249 arrests in the first period and 39 in the second, and Ashland had a total of 2,242 arrests during the first and 980 during the second.

In Elizabethtown 63 persons were arrested during the six months preceding prohibition, of which 22 were for drunkenness, while during the next six months there were 70 arrests of which 8 were for drunkenness. In Paris arrests totaled 52 in the first period, including 28 for drunkenness, and 15 in the second, including 5 for drunkenness.

Winchester reported 159 arrests including 121 for drunkenness during the six months preceding prohibition and 56 including 26 drunks, for the

PERISCOPE AUTO WARNING SIGN A SUCCESS

The periscope, danger curve, automobile warning sign has made its appearance. It has been installed by the Montgomery County Automobile Club of Dayton, O. Its most effective service is at night. The principle is mirrors so arranged that an automobile coming down the road will cast its lights into the the mirrors, reflecting the light through an intense red lens and warning cars coming from the other direction that a car is coming. The photo shows the periscope warning sign in use in Montgomery county, Ohio.

Boards of Health and Education now is in general use and already plans are being made by the normal schools of Kentucky for courses which will especially qualify their graduates to teach physical training.

The superintendent of immigration at Ottawa has issued instructions to agents throughout Canada to slow up immigration to that country. Steamship agents predict a heavy immigration throughout 1921 should industrial conditions in England fail to improve.

British India, Egypt and the United States ordinarily produce more than 35 per cent, of the world's cotton. The prospective production this year is 16 per cent, larger than that of 1919.

The Russian census shows decreases in the population of more than ten per cent, compared with 1914, due to war losses and epidemics. Petrograd dropped 71 per cent, and Moscow 45 per cent.

Sickness results in an annual loss to the workers of the United States amounting to more than $800,000,000.

SCHOOLS DESIRE PHYSICAL COUPSES.
Present Requirements for Common Schools of State May Be Extended To Include High Schools.

There is considerable desire in the state of Kentucky that the law requiring that a minimum of thirty minutes a day of physical training be given in all common schools be extended to include high schools, John B. Carr, director of hygiene, State Board of Education, declared recently in one of a series of addresses delivered in Louisville before the School of Public Health, conducted under the auspices of the Medical Department of the University of Louisville and of the State Board of Health.

Mr. Carr, who was probably more responsible for the law requiring thirty minutes of physical training in the common schools than any other one man, gave glowing accounts of the effective work that is being done to improve Kentucky's educational system through this introduction of physical training.

"Kentucky," he declared, "is the first state in which the Board of Health and the State Board of Education have co-operated in an effort to develop the physical as well as the mental side of its school children."

Lack of teachers especially prepared to lead the work in physical training has been the greatest difficulty encountered in establishing this addition to the common school curriculum, but this is being overcome rapidly. The manual issued by the State

WOULD RAISE COMEDY STANDARD IN PICTURES

Higher Class Comedies Wanted Says Carter DeHaven, Famous Farceur.

"There is a strong and very real desire on the part of picture followers everywhere for a higher type of comedy picture, to fill the place now occupied solely by the multitude of slapstick, sham-bang offerings," said Carter DeHaven, commenting on his latest photoplay version of the stage success, "Twin Beds."

Mr. DeHaven feels the majority of film fans of today will welcome with enthusiasm high-grade, legitimate comedy pictures, depending upon well-written, clever stories, and intelligent acting rather than upon burlesque and hodge-podge of impossible situations for their success.

"People the world over love the ridiculous and the comic," went on Mr. DeHaven, "and that humor which appeals to the intellect, is always more appreciated than the brand which is forced over with a padded mallet. Very rarely has there been a successful slapstick comedy of the stage, while on the other hand, witness the tremendous success and popularity of 'Twin Beds' and other plays of its kind."

"What is true of the spoken play is not less true of the screen, I believe, and it is my intention from now on to endeavor to supply a demand which I have long felt existed for good, straight comedies."

From all reports Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven have made a flying start in this direction in "Twin Beds," which is said to be a comedy picture of the highest class, alive with hilarious, wholesome fun, and employing admirably the talents of these two ever popular favorites.

"Twin Beds" will be the Associated First National attraction at the Washington tonight.
